TENTH-RANKED STINGERS HOST LAURENTIAN AND YORK THIS WEEKEND

Men's Basketball Update: The Stingers (6-3) won their first three league games in convincing fashion last week. They defeated Ottawa 103-80, Carleton 92-74 and Queen's 115-86. The tenth-ranked Stingers received balanced scoring in the three games as nine different players hit double figures. In the Ottawa game, Dino Perin (6-8; Montreal, Que.) had a career-high 29 points while scoring his 1000th career point in the process. Third-year swing-guard Michael Cohee (6-1; Montreal, Que.) scored a season high 22 points against Queen's while adding 20 points against Ottawa. First-year guard Trevor Williams (5-11; Montreal, Que.) averaged 18 points in the three games. In the victory over Carleton, six players hit double figures for the Stingers.

This Week: The Stingers host Laurentian Friday, December 1 at 8:00 p.m. and York Sunday, December 3 at 2:00 p.m. The Voyageurs (1-1) are coming off a 95-61 victory over Ryerson. Two key players for them are guards Norm Hann and Walter Johnson. Laurentian finished with a 10-8 record last year, second in the OUAA Central.

The Yeomen finished with a 5-13 record last season and are rebuilding this year with 10 first-year players. York played the Stingers tough in 1989 with a 98-92 victory and a three-point loss.

Balanced Attack: In the victory over Queen's, every player on the Stingers scored at least a point. All 12 players had a minimum of 13 minutes in court time. In the two other victories, 10 of 12 players scored for Concordia.

Career Highs: Four Stingers had career-high scoring games on the weekend while two had career-high rebounding games. Reserve guards Charlie Mason (Plattsburgh, N.Y.) and Raphael Tyrrell (Montreal, Que.) had eight and 12 points respectively against Queen's. Second-year guard Pat Sullivan (Verdun, Que.) had a career-high 10 points against Carleton and four rebounds versus Queen's, also a career best. Dino Perin scored 29 points against Ottawa, a career best for him. Rookie guard Robert Ferguson (Montreal, Que.) had 11 rebounds against Carleton.

STINGERS ENTERTAIN OTTAWA AND LAURENTIAN THIS WEEKEND

Men's Hockey Update: The Stingers record stands at 5-10-3 overall after a win and two losses last weekend. Concordia snapped a five-game losing streak November 26 with a 3-2 victory over Guelph. Rookie Steve Sonoski (Brampton, Ont.) scored the winning goal against Guelph, his third in three games. Concordia now has a record of 3-6 in OUAA play. In five of their losses they were tied or leading after two periods.

This Week: The Stingers host the Ottawa Gee Gees (4-5-1) Friday and Laurentian (4-8) Sunday. The Gee Gees, under new coach Mickey Goulet, appear much improved this season. Key players include wingers Steve Simoni and Captain Brent Battistelli. The Voyageurs have several former O.H.L. players including captain Justin Corbid and forward Rod Lapointe, both from the Sudbury Wolves.

The Records: Concordia has a 37-18-5 record against Ottawa since 1975. In the last ten games, the Stingers are 9-2-1. The Voyageurs have yet to beat the Stingers in their three meetings.

Young Line-up: The Stingers iced 16 first-year and four second-year players in their weekend line-ups. Concordia is the least experienced team in the OUAA.

First League Goals: Rookie forward Dean Delvecchio (Kirkland, Que.) scored his first OUAA goal against Brock while Chris Lovisek (Scarborough, Ont.) had his first league tally versus Guelph. Impressive defenseman Pierre Bouthillier (Granby, Que.) also had his first OUAA career goal against Guelph.

Third Period Woes: The Stingers have been outscored 12-6 in the third period in the nine league games to date. They have actually outscored their opponents only once in the final frame, that being against Ryerson 3-0. However, they lost that game in O.T.

Young Defense: Concordia played the weekend series with one veteran defenseman, E.J. Janiszewski (Dollard des Ormeaux, Que.). Newcomers Pierre Bouthillier, Jeff Gill (Lennoxville, Que.), Bob Cameron (Pointe Claire, Que.) and Skip Langton (Freetown, MA) were the other defencemen that saw action along with converted rookie forward Marc Desmarais (Ile Perrot, Que.). Cameron played the first game against Ryerson before being injured in the first five minutes of the second game. Langton, the youngest player on the Stingers at 18 years - two months, has played in four consecutive league games after not dressing for the first five. The Stingers were missing second-year defenseman Louis Leger (Pierrefonds, Que.) due to school committments, and Claude "Tank" Bisaillon because of an injury.

STINGERS HEAD TO COLBY INVITATIONAL

Women's Hockey Update: The Stingers (9-1) had their league record 25 game win streak snapped by Laval November 26. Concordia defeated the Rouge et Or the previous night only to lose a close 3-2 decision. Second-year forward Debbie Woods-Turner (Dorval, Que.) moved into third place in league scoring after a five point weekend. She now has 19 points in seven games. Laura Leslie (Beaconsfield, Que.) continues to lead the Q.W.I.H.L. in scoring after tallying two goals and one assist in the two games. The second-year forward now has 25 points. Impressive rookie Stephanie Ouellette (Town of Mount Royal, Que.) sits number two in the league with 20 points.

This Week: Concordia will travel to Waterville, Maine for the Colby Invitational. The Stingers face Boston College Friday, December 1 in their first game.
